TOGETHERNESS

. . . a new thing

The theme of the 1970 Shield is . . . Togetherness. Togetherness . . . to act as one or of one accord, to be part of a group where each individual is concerned for the whole, to be united in seeking one specific goal, all for one and one for all.

This year togetherness has been emphasized at Woodrow Wilson High School. Willie Davis, the first Junior ever elected school president, struck the keynote early in the fall semester. "My main goal," he told us, "is to bring about a better relationship between the students at Wilson. And I would also like to get more students participating in school affairs and activities." His idea caught on and progressive things started happening at Wilson.

It is the idea and spirit of working together for Progress that the 1970 Shield hopes to capture and portray.

Fall Fashion Show Is Exciting

Enthusiastic viewers crowded the school auditorium for the Fall Fashion Preview Nov. 5. Wearing the latest styles provided by Designers Workshop on Grant Ave., Wilson models staged an exciting show.

Sheila Jackson and Janice Cobb did a fine job as fashion co-ordinators. Music was provided by Andrew Gooden on piano, Harvey Hughes on drums, Tony Verreos on bass, and the school stage band.

So successful was this initial show that students are planning to make it an annual event.

Students Get 'Dream' Trip to Africa

The "impossible dream"—a trip to Africa—came true last summer for five Woodrow Wilson students.

Mark Alexander, Nelson Coleman, Sheila Jackson, Robert Lane and Pat Nicholson were in Ghana for one and a half months on a work-study program sponsored by the Red Cross.

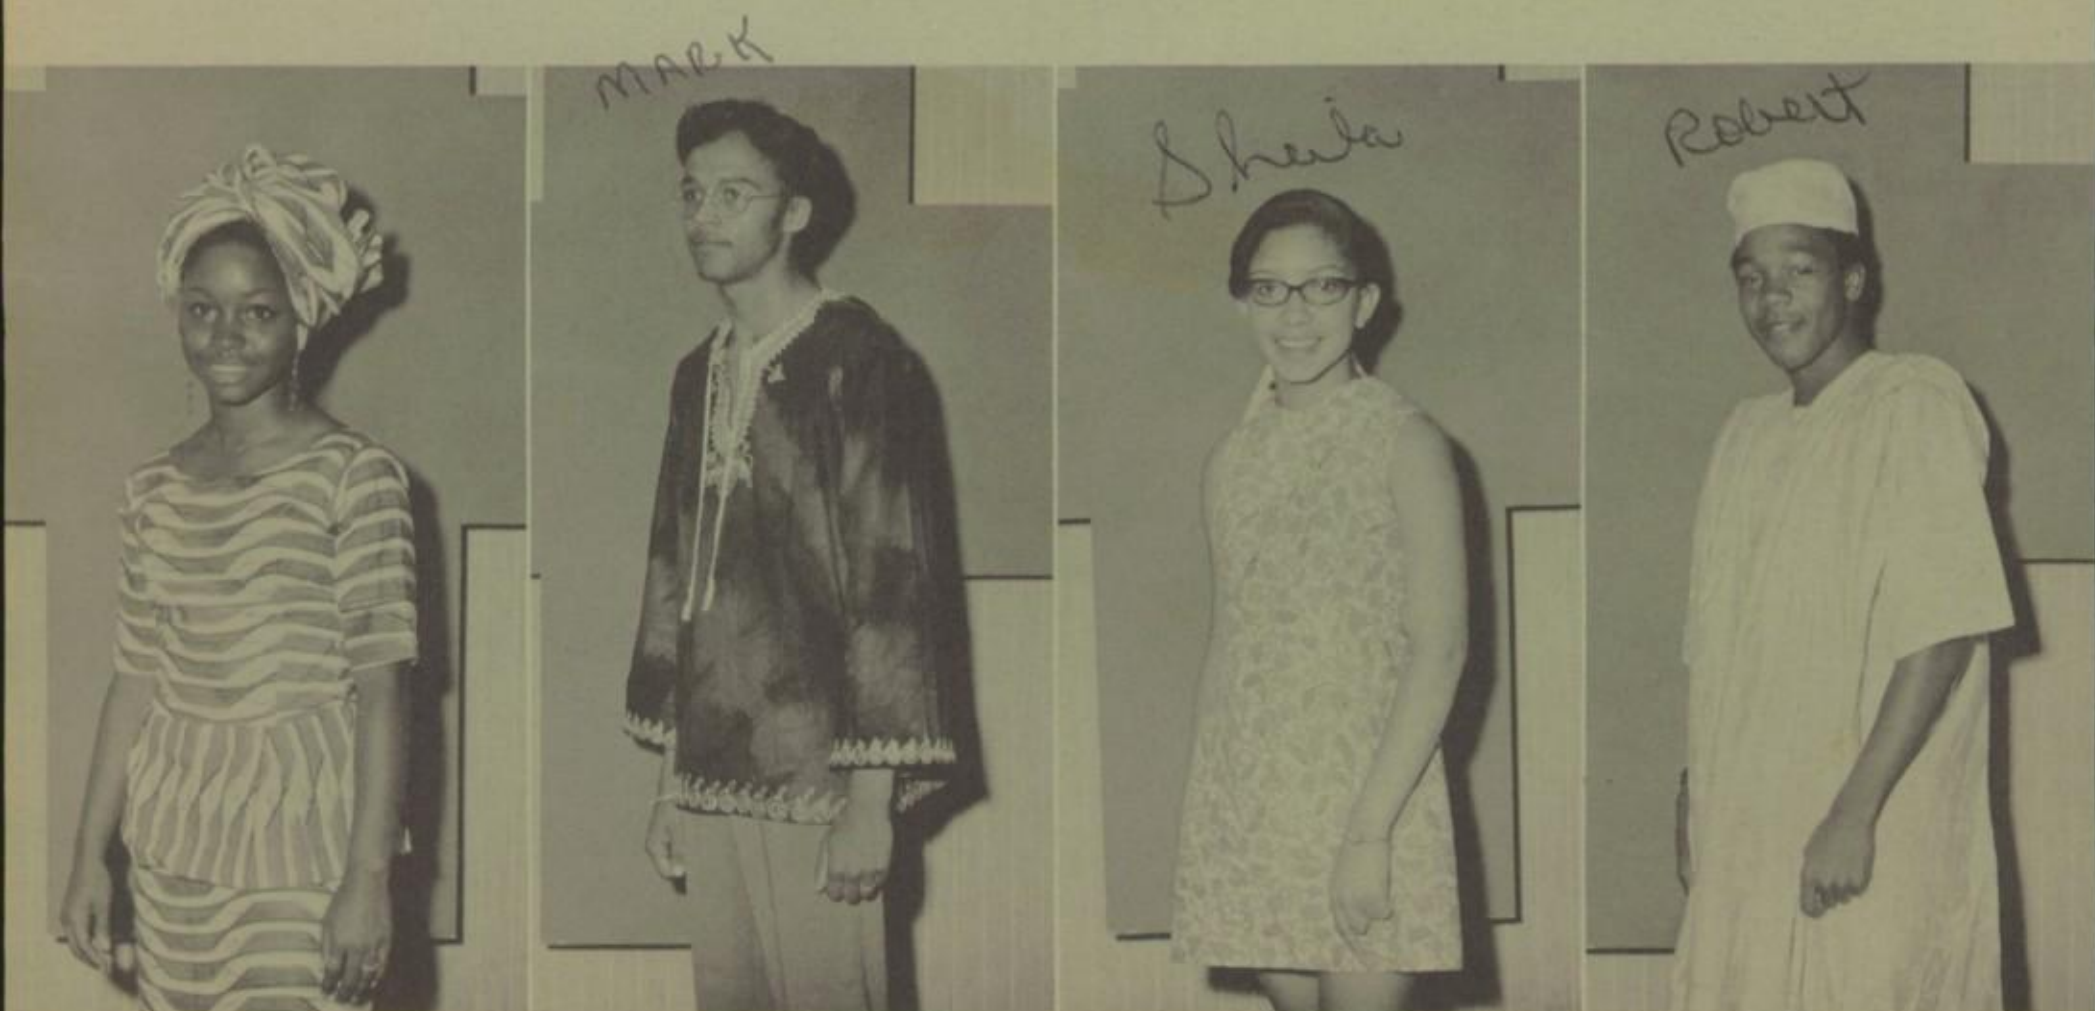

Accompanied by Junior Red Cross sponsor Mrs. Judith Borchert, the team demonstrated first aid and basic health skills at schools, hospitals and villages, while meeting and talking with African youth.

"I know basically I'm American," said Pat Nicholson, "but when we were dancing in Dunpong, I thought I was one of the Ghanians."

How do African youth dress? "The kids will wear Afro styles one day and the next day they'll wear their traditional African dress," said Nelson Coleman.

Mark Alexander, who was made an honorary Ashanti chief, said the Ghanians were very friendly and they "DIG James Brown, Aretha Franklin and Jimi Hendrix."

Money for the trip ($10,500) was raised from contributions and special student projects.

Musical Brilliance At Christmas Assembly

The halls of Woodrow Wilson rang out with the merriment of the Holiday Spirit as the combined efforts of the choir, directed by Mr. Leon Rudee and Kenneth Talley, and the various bands and the school orchestra, directed by Mr. John Arnaudo and Lowell Watson, presented Wilson's annual Christmas program on Tuesday, December 16.

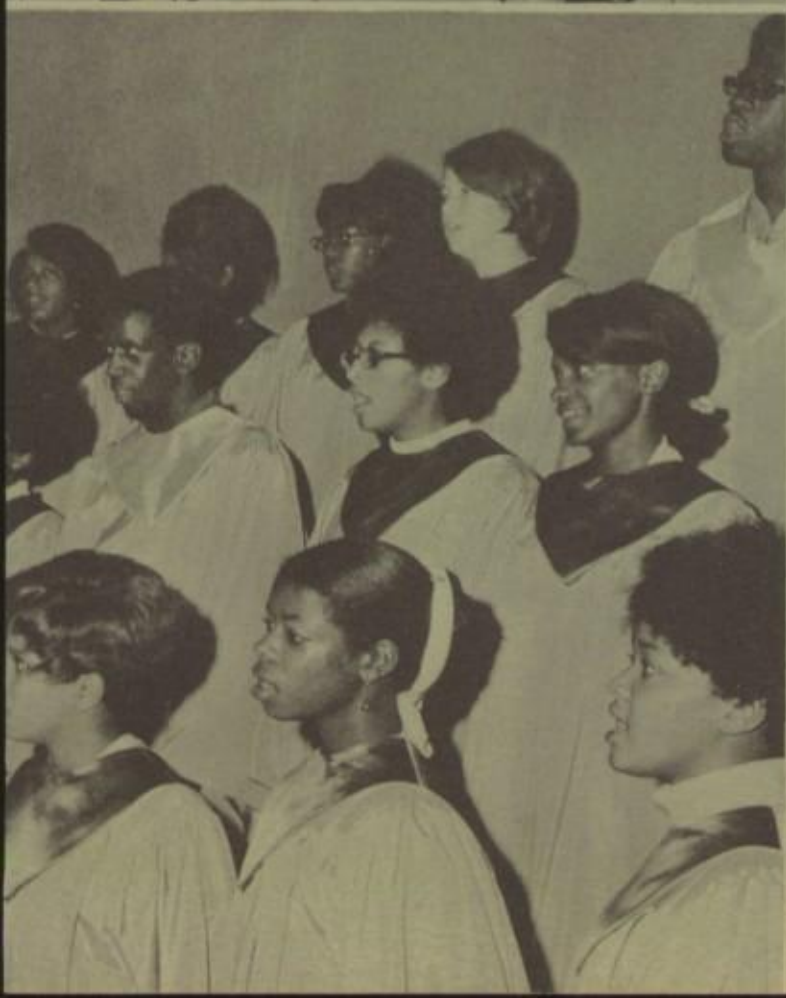

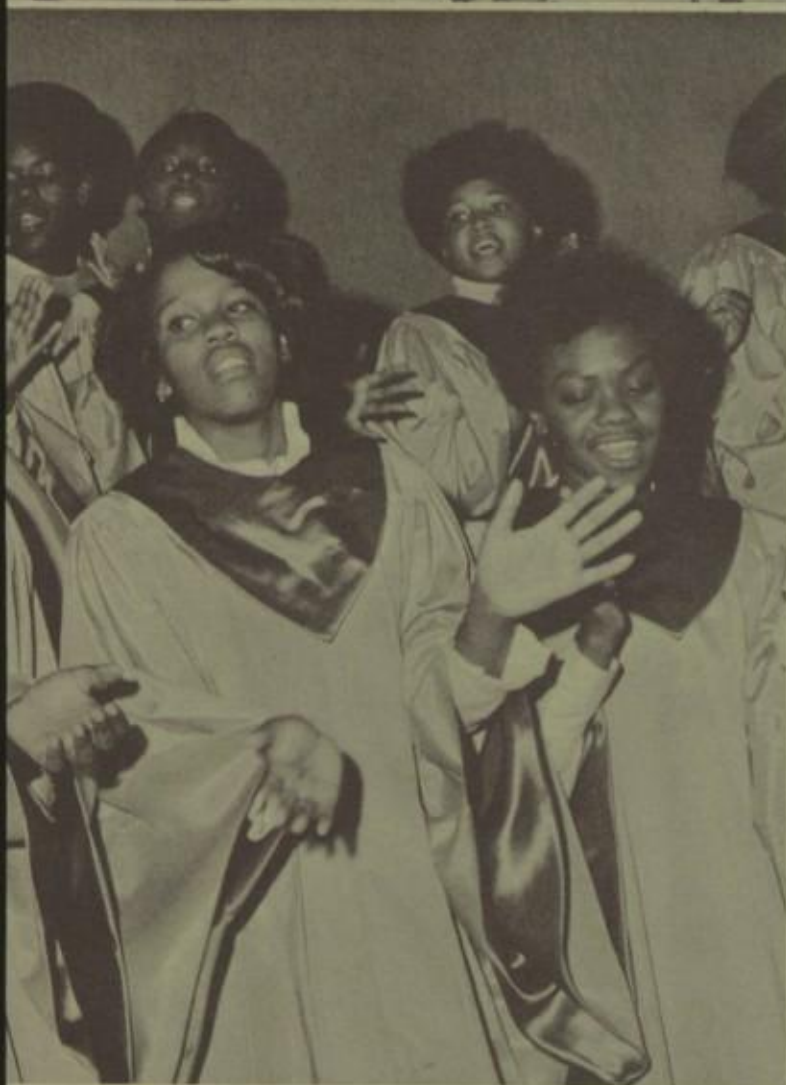

The show was highlighted several times.

William Lawson proved his genius as he presented an original creation composed, directed and orchestrated by him.

The program was highlighted again by several selections by the Inner Choir, otherwise known as the "Echoes of Glory." This rising young group has been making a name for itself by its marvelous presentations of fine gospel music.

"This is what a Christmas Assembly should be like," said choir member Janice Cobb.

Keynote speaker was Dr. Raymond J. Pitts, district Assistant Superintendent.

The awards, begun in March 1965, are presented to honest, sincere students who are recommended from their L10 English classes.

'Music Man' is Fun, Frolic

"The Music Man," crammed with stars and fun, came to the WWHHS stage May 9, 10 and 16th with a cast headed by superb veterans Emmet Barton, Victoria Jordan and Wanda Ross—and directed by Mr. Harry Lieberman.

It was based on the story of a lovable confidence man who arrives in River City, Iowa in 1912 to sell instruments and uniforms. He promises to teach the children how to play the instruments, which is impossible since he ("Professor" Harold Hill) doesn't know one note from another. However, he has magic and an educated heart, and soon all River City is in love with him—especially Marian, the librarian.

Emmet Barton, commenting on his leading role as the Professor, described the play as "light, happy—a ball of fluff. However, it had a special significance to me. My having the lead in this play was a triumph for fat, ugly people everywhere. Keep the faith, baby!"

Plays Check on Love

On December 5 and 6th four one-act plays dealing with love were staged at Wilson.

"Before Breakfast," by Eugene O'Neill, featured Sheila Thares as the disappointed, frustrated wife who drives her husband to suicide.

Anton Chekhov's "The Bear" was a hilarious view of love. A caller comes to collect a debt. He, Greg Fields, falls madly in love with a widow, Wanda Ross, who supposedly has given up on all love. He wins her with his passionate display of love.

"Miss Julie," starring Hobie Sylvester and Sonia Sierra, dealt with warped love. Miss Julie desires to dominate her man and tragically selects the butler who is heartless in turning the tables on Miss Julie.

Edward Albee's "The Sand Box" demonstrated the lack of love that some children feel toward their aging parents. Linda Brown, Rochelle Toninelli, Lowell Watson, Jackie Yim, Keith Lawson, and Ed May shared in this production, representing the theater of the absurd.

Future Homemakers Study Pre-Schoolers

The innocence and simple beauties of childhood are explored each semester by the Homeliving 11 classes as they attempt to unravel the many mysteries of the child's mind by means of observation and direct contact with youngsters.

"Play School," where pre-schoolers are watched in their natural "sandbox habitat" as they work and play together, was held January 8 and 9 in the Homemaking Department, room 236.

Refreshments, toys, fun, and games highlighted the two half days of activities.

Naturally, during the activities there popped up a few skirmishes over lost games pieces and the rightful ownership of Chatty Cathy, but nothing a cookie wouldn't take a tiny mind off.

Progress in Student Government Told

Willie Davis

This year Wilson underwent a major change in student government. Instead of working under a Constitution, a new Charter system was voted in which gave students a real voice in students' happenings.

Under the new setup the principal granted students the power to rule in certain areas of school life, such as: budget, scheduling of events, and appointing the President's Cabinet. The Charter calls for the election of a President and Vice-President only, with the President selecting all other officers, who are responsible to him. Before, all officers were elected and were difficult to remove if they did not perform their duties.

After watching Willie Davis, Wilson's first "charter" president and first Junior president, and Timothy Barrow, it appears that student government at Wilson has come of age.

Warriors Miss Play-offs - But Not by Much

Coach Fil Jularbal summed up the season this way: "We were so close; and yet, so far from play-off chances."

Wilson lost three heartbreakers while compiling a 3-4 record. It lost the opener to Lowell, 7-0, then later in the season was victimized by Lincoln, 6-0, and by Washington, 7-6. Balboa then ended Wilson's play-off hopes with a 22-6 shellacking.

The Wilson Junior Varsity Football Team made history by rolling to its first undefeated, untied season and its first championship.

"It was a complete team effort with all members contributing to a winning effort," said coach Myron Heckman. "Each player was a standout at his particular position."

However, running backs Kerry Thomas, Eddie Tobias and quarterback Greg Jimenez were particularly outstanding.

The team led the league in both offense and defense.

Oddly enough team members gave credit for their great season to the coach. And the coach gave credit to all team members.

The school says thanks to both.

Sophs Take All the Marbles

The Wilson Sophomore Football Team enjoyed its best season ever.

For a team small in size and number—sometimes as few as 18 members—it never really had any competition, winning its games by wide margins.

Outstanding players were Gene Woodard, Gregory Johnwell, Steven Bowles, Nick Jackson, Byron Franks and Gregory Scott. But coach Adolph Bush said, "Winning the championship was a team effort all the way."

Soccer Team Has Talent, Poor Record

This season's soccer team had as much potential as any in the school's history, said coach Fred Quinn, although the team did not win a single league game.

"The team fought with valor," Coach Quinn said, "but inexperience hurt us at several key positions."

Talented Vernon Sampson, again the league's Most Valuable Player for the second year in a row, also repeated as a first string All-City team member. Edgar Lucha made the second string All-City team and was named Most Inspirational Player. All-City Honorable Mention honors went to Abdul Aziz and Eugene King.

Warriors Take All in AAA

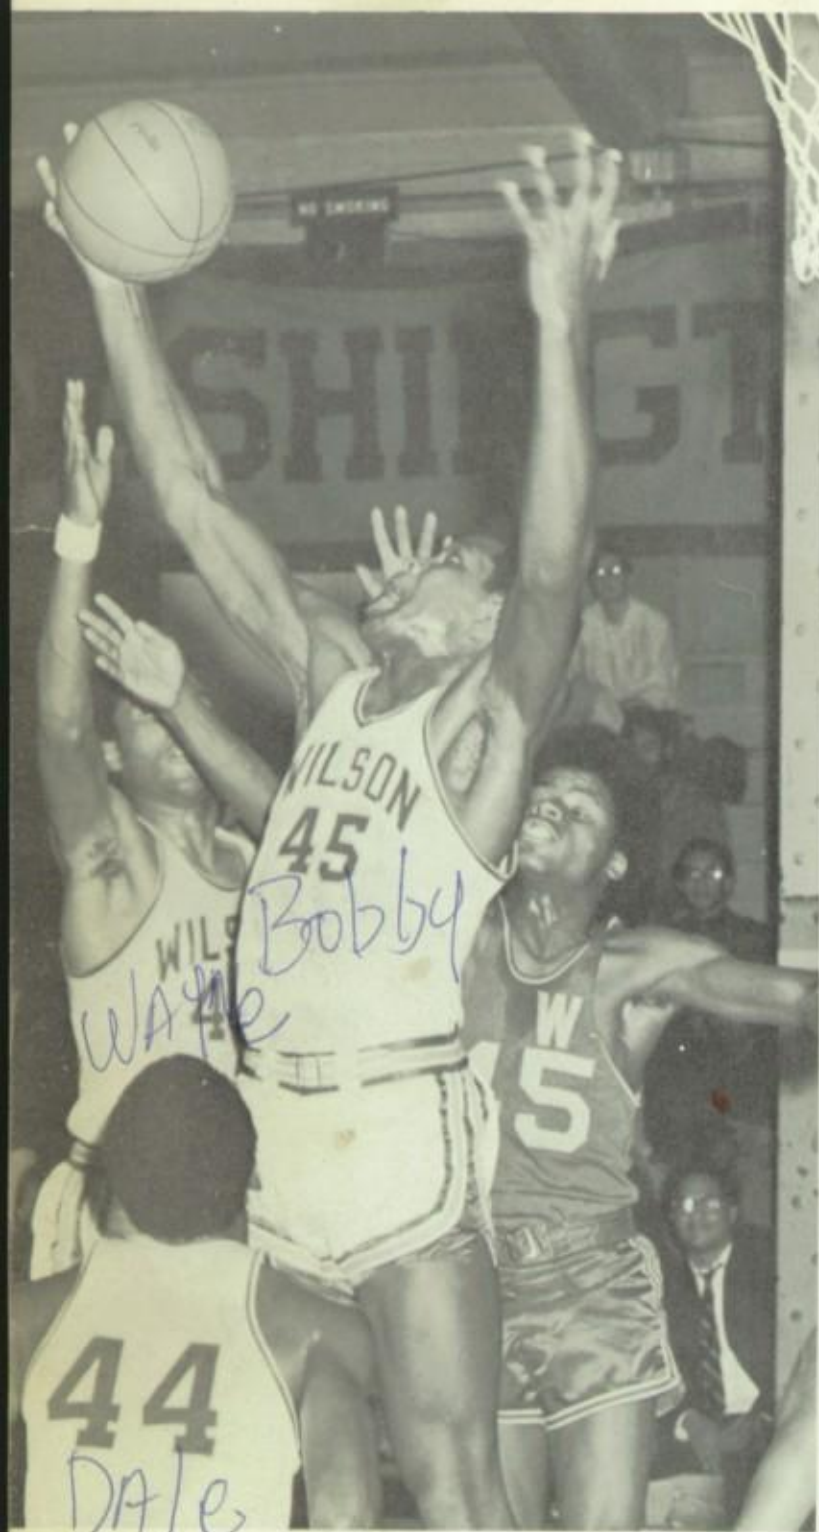

A dramatic comeback in the closing minutes of the final-final game of the 1970 play-offs, rescued the Warriors from the brink of defeat and sent them winging on their way to the annual Tournament of Champions—armed with both the AAA round-robin and play-off championships.

Led by Ron Dale and Willie Daigle before mid-term graduation and by Wayne Snelgro, Andrew Gooden and Bobby Pruitt after, Wilson ended the regular season in a tie with Washington as round-robin champs, although Wilson had lost its first regular season games in three years. Thus both co-champs went into the play-offs with a one-point advantage.

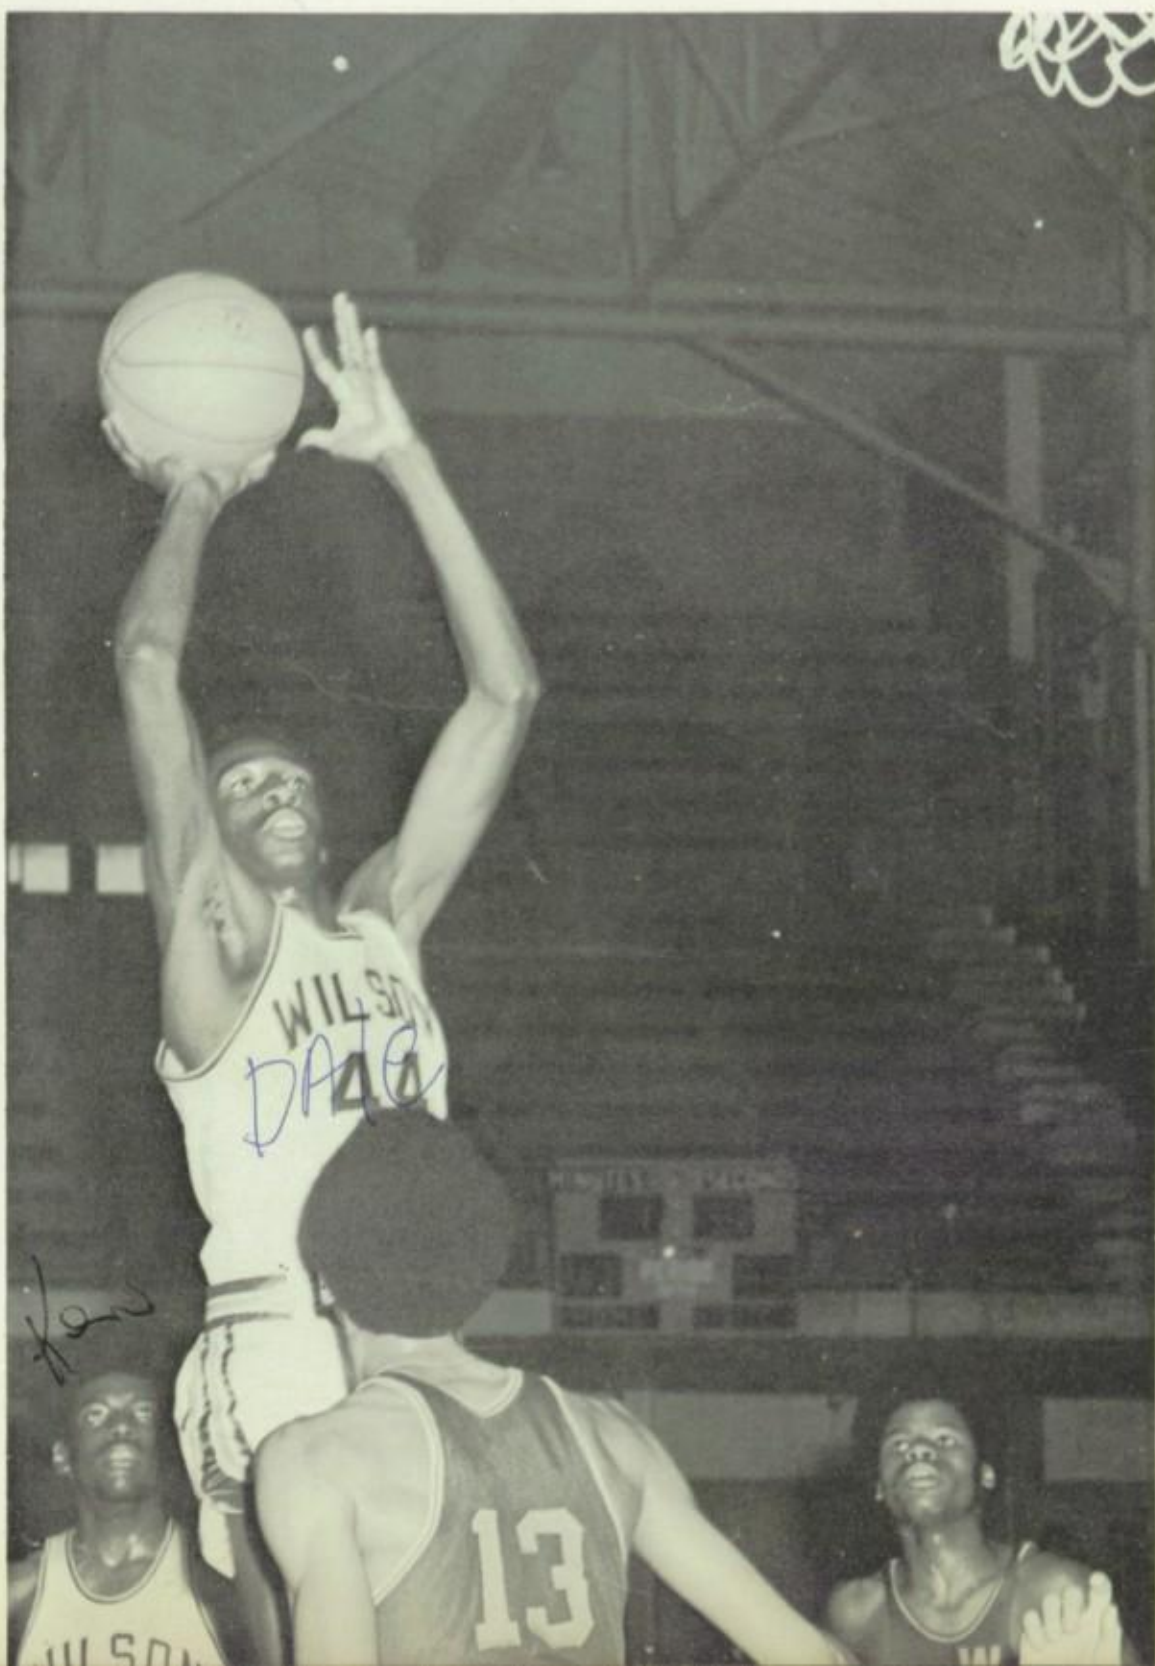

In the first game Wilson lost to Lincoln, and the season could have ended for Wilson. But co-champ Washington also lost its first game, which set up another meeting between the co-champs and a second chance for each.

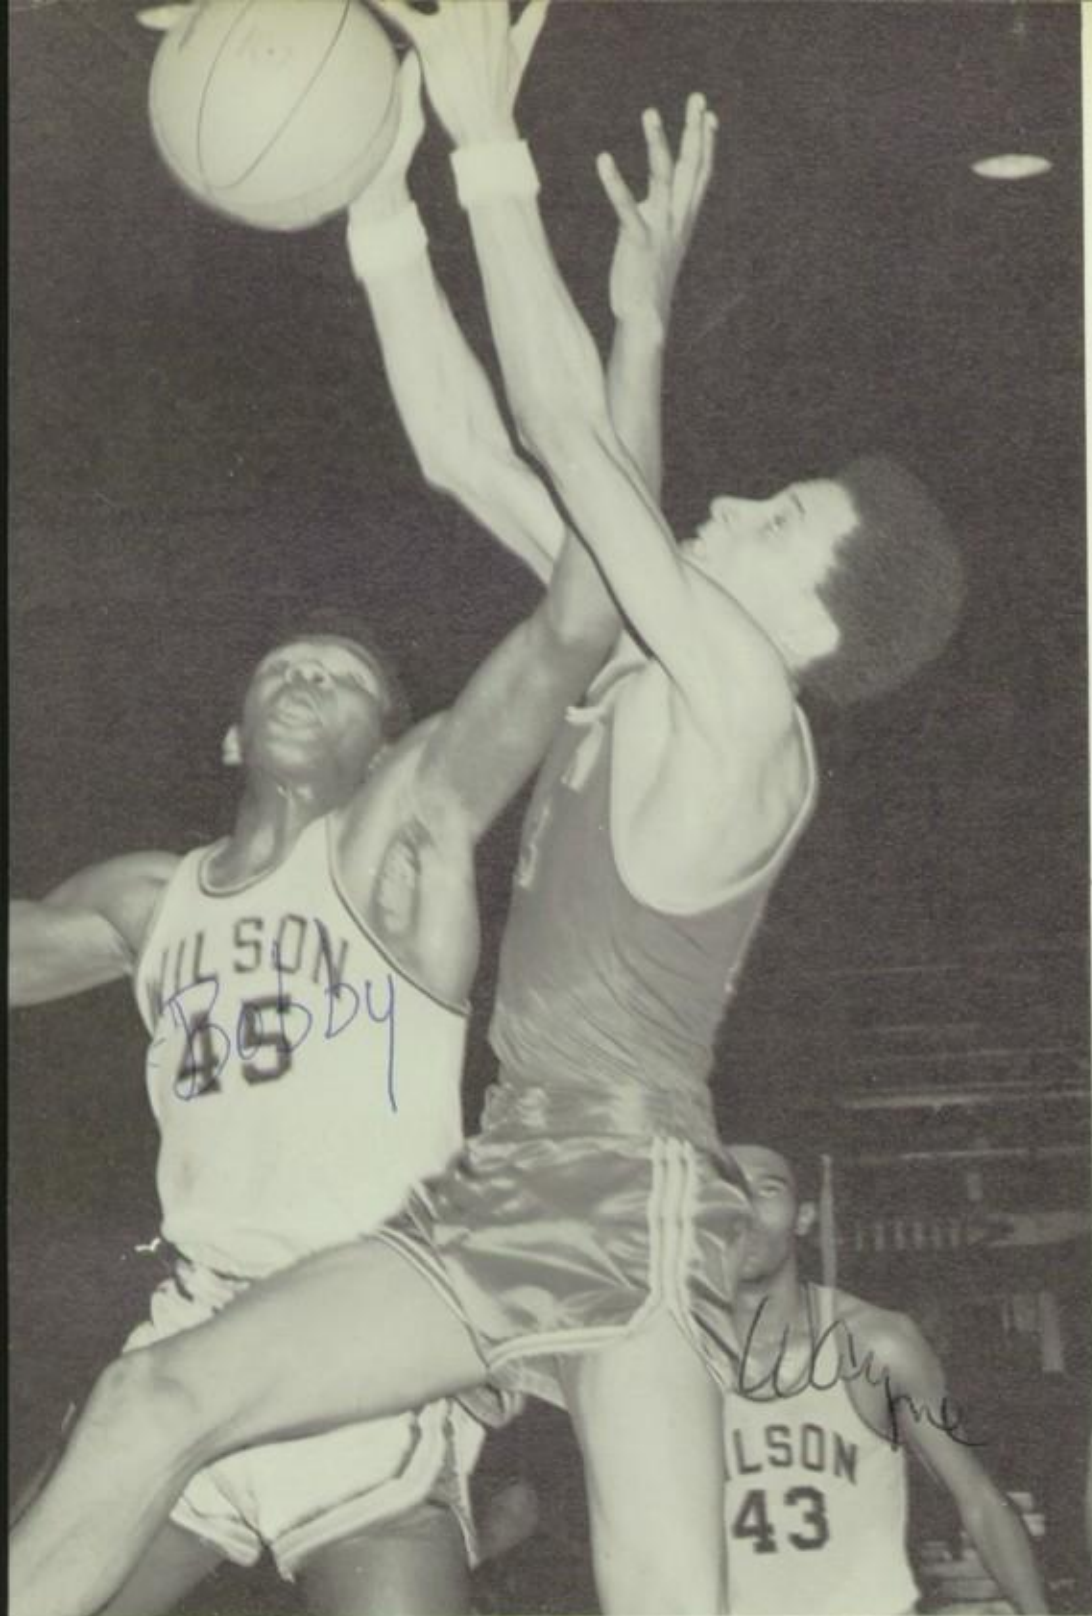

Wilson rushed past Washington, 58-38, and went into the championship game to face upstart Polytechnic, which had eliminated Lincoln.

The Parrots jumped off to a big lead. With two minutes remaining in the third quarter, the Warriors trailed by 16 points. But in that two minute period the warriors outshot the Parrots by 11 points. Then in the fourth period startled fans saw the Warriors score 24 points to Poly's 8 to pull out the final victory, 57-46.

Warriors Almost Win Second T.O.C. Title

Although not thought to be in the same class with Castlemont and Berkeley—top-rated in Northern California—the Warriors nevertheless were expected to have little trouble with Amador Valley, their opening opponent in the 1970 Tournament of Champions.

But Amador refused to follow the script and led most of the way. When Wilson finally took the lead late in the third quarter, Amador came roaring back to go ahead 42-41 with 43 seconds remaining in the game. The Warriors had two straight shots in the last eight seconds before cool Wayne Snelgro banked in the game-saver. Wilson won, 43-42, with one second remaining.

The Warriors next dumped the highly regarded Bishop O'Dowd Dons, 56-52, which set the stage for the championship clash with Berkeley.

Berkeley, picked by the experts to run away with Wilson, jumped off to a big lead and held a 12 point advantage at the half. But the battling Warriors fought back and even took the lead with 2:38 to go; however, Berkeley finally won, 70-64.

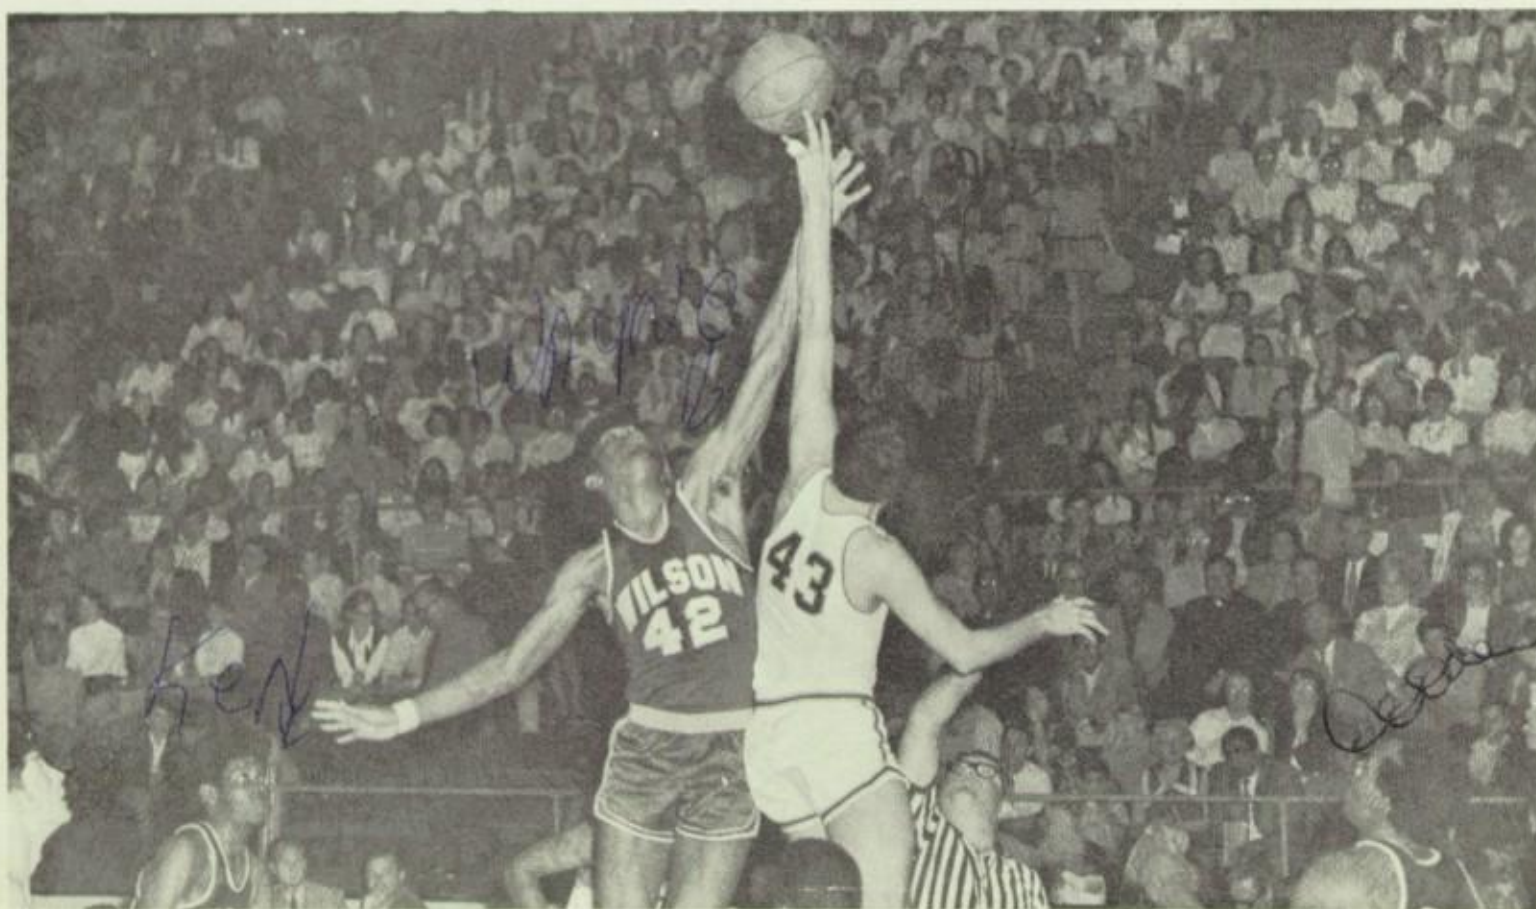

In 1968 Wilson beat Berkeley, 68-62, to win the T.O.C. in its first try.

Warriors placed on the All-T.O.C. team were: Wayne Snelgro, Bobby Pruitt and Andrew Gooden.

Trackmen Have High Hopes for All-City Meet

The Wilson trackmen were looking forward to the All-City meet when the Shield went to press. Coaches Ronald Coleman and Ed Rueda said the 30s team had a good chance of winning it this year.

In varsity, Ceabe Justin was to defend his title in high jump. Richard Humphrey was doing an outstanding all-round job, with Willie Davis, John Chitman, Derek Toliver, Bruce Rhodes and Greg Dominguez expected to help.

Mr. Coleman said lightweight sprinters Joe Jones, Carroll Braxton and Greg Love would be tough to beat, as would Ken Simon in the hurdles. The distance men were being led by Ron Bullard, Rick Montillano and Steve Frediani. James Wesley and Ron De Rosans were good high jumpers.

"The teams should do an outstanding job this year," said second year coach Mr. Coleman.

A Good Year for Wilson

The joy of victory as well as the sheer delight of athletic competition are depicted on the faces of the people in these pictures. It was a good year for both the sports participants and the sports spectator.

Swimmers get set for a practice heat.

The plunge is taken and the race is on.

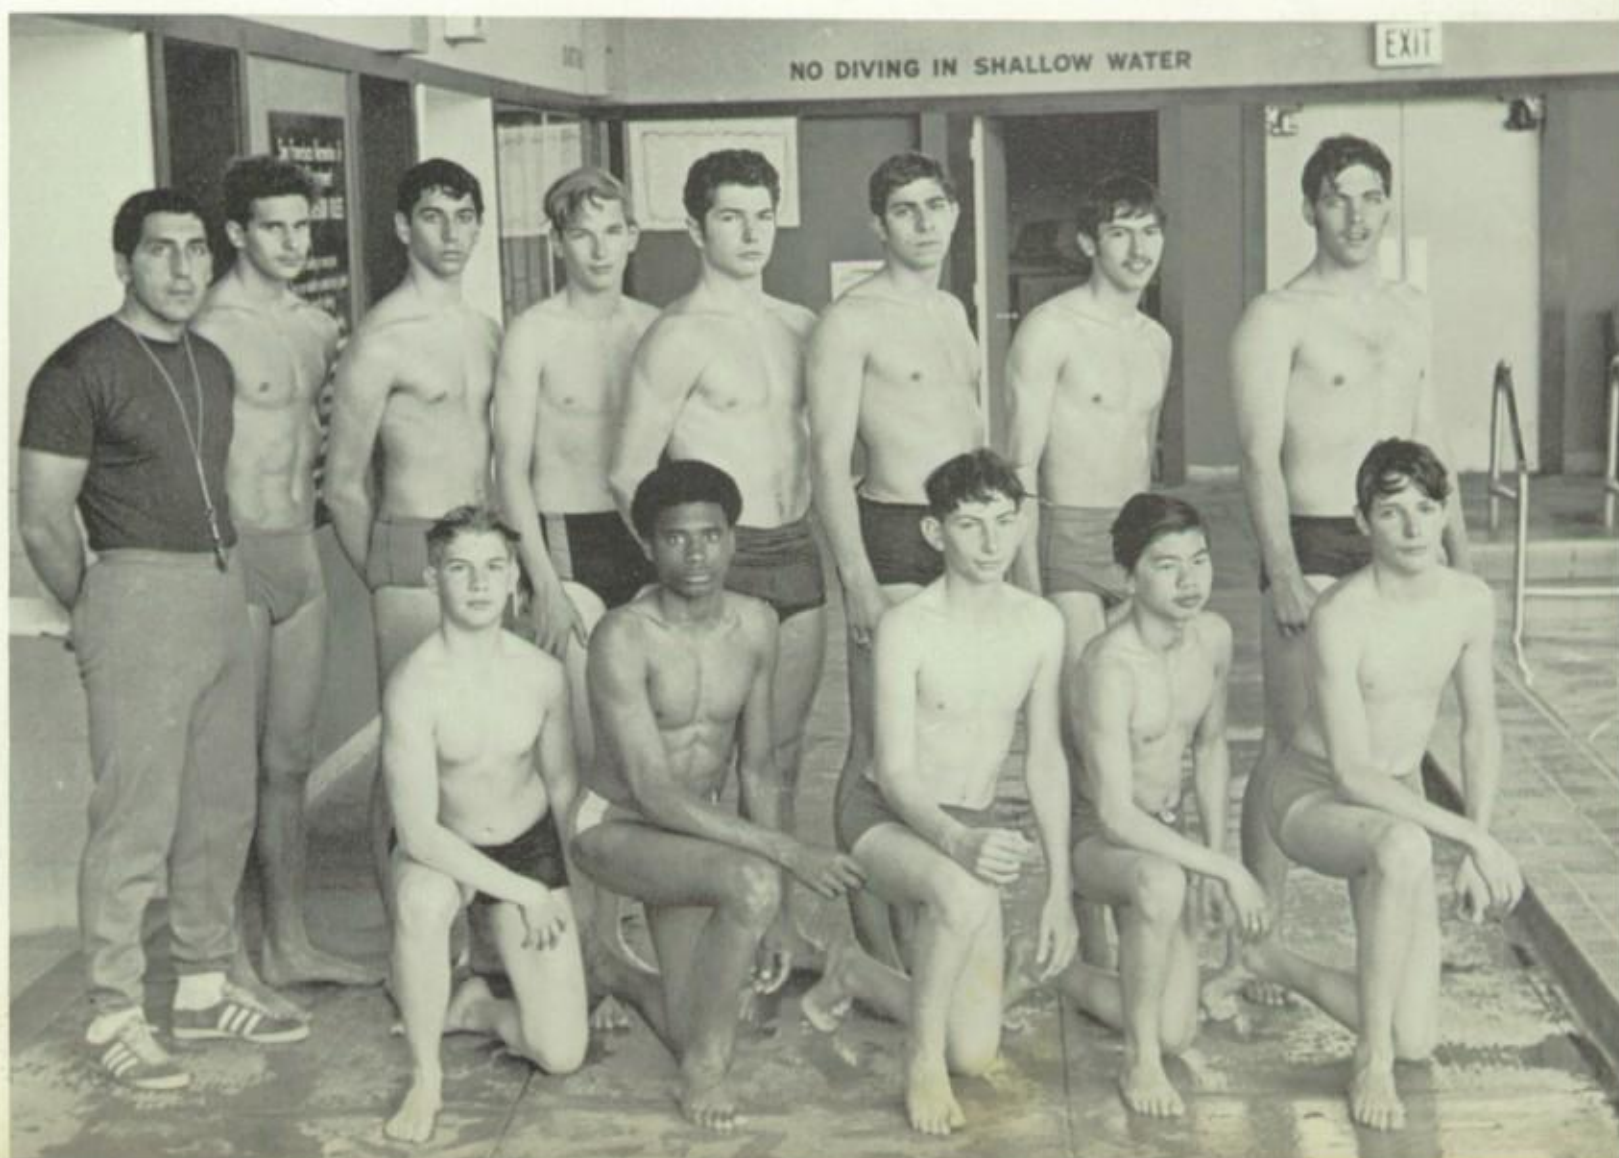

Hopeful Swim Team Is Small, Skillful

The 1970 swimming team turned out to be small in number but big on individual skills, said coach Myron Heckman in early April. He felt sure that the team was headed for another successful season, with each member making an important contribution.

Student Athletes Get Awards for Excellence

The fall semester Block W Awards Banquet was held January 15 at Zee's Restaurant, Arguello and Geary Streets.

Over 200 athletes and well-wishers saw awards for excellence in sports presented to a host of Wilson's outstanding athletes.

Guest speaker was Mr. Saul Madfes, who had a distinguished coaching career himself before going into administration.

Besides the awards, the guests enjoyed feasting on fried chicken.

G.A.A. Caters to The Athletic Girl

The Girls Athletic Association (G.A.A.), Wilson's most active girls organization, provides girls with the opportunity to participate in a vast array of sports activities, varying from bowling to modern dance.

Miss Aner Young, Girls P.E. Department head, was assisted by Miss Whitehead, Mrs. Stevenson and Miss Potts. Their main object was to make worthwhile athletic activities available to girls with healthy interests.

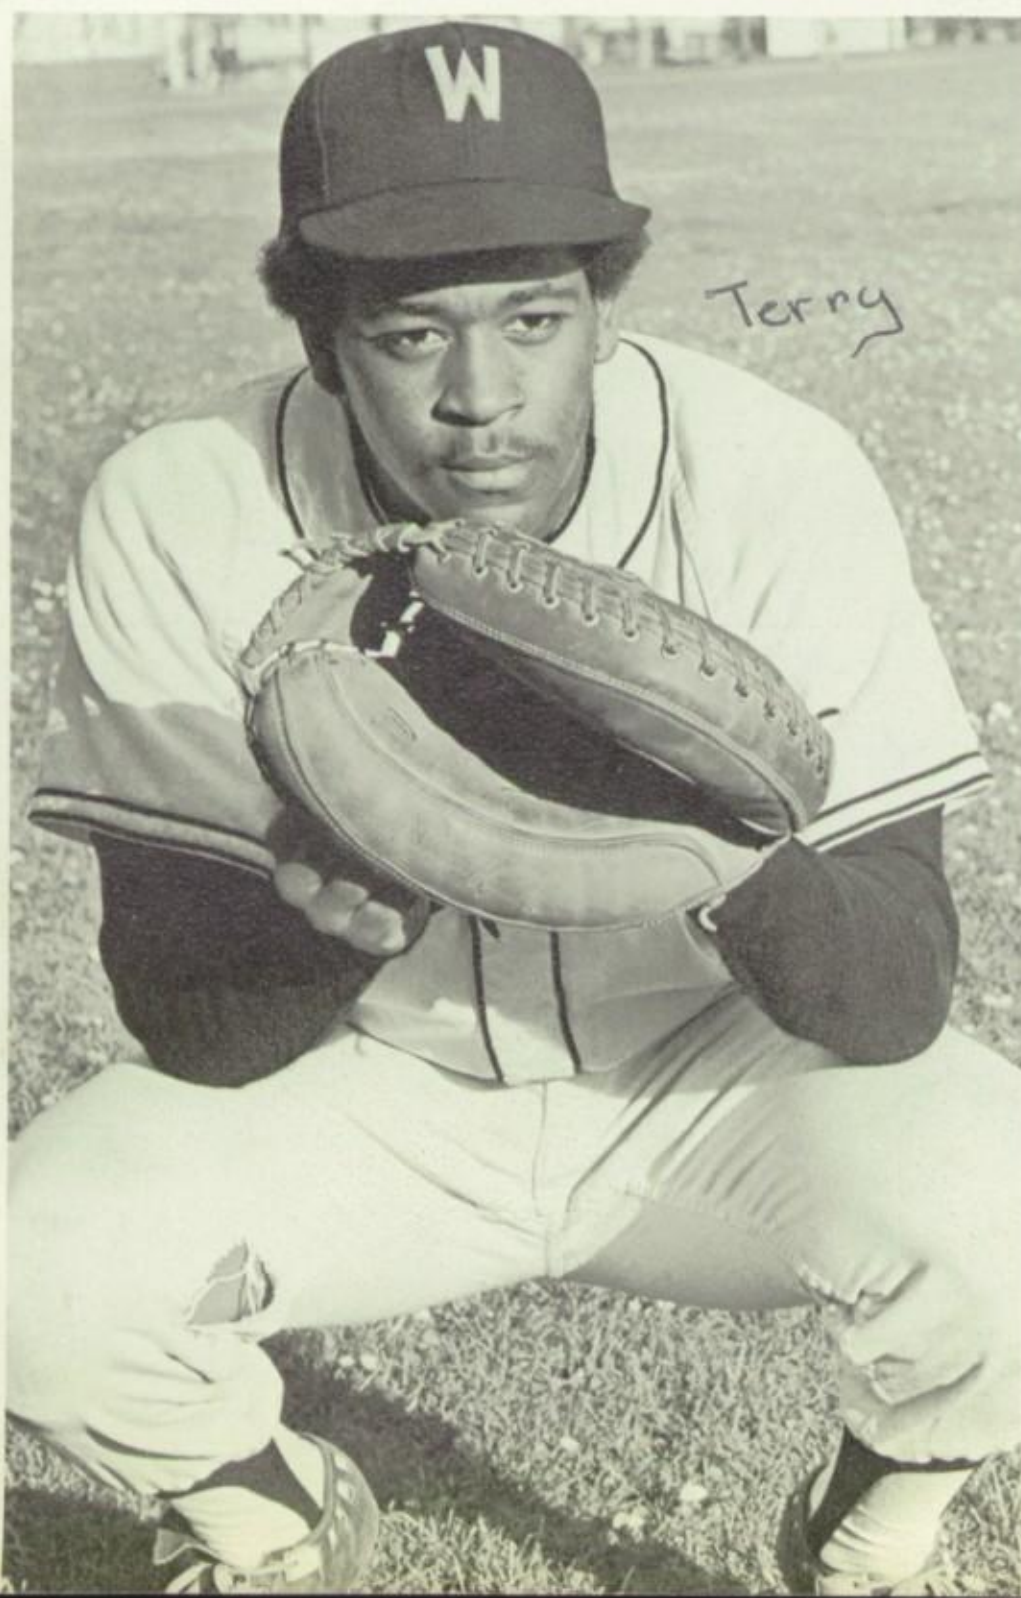

Along with the fun of participating in athletic competition, the girls benefitted by keeping in shape and learning to be "good sports".

A new addition to the G.A.A. list was the Major-Minor Club for girls with an interest in making physical education their professional aim.

One of the G.A.A. highlights was the Modern Dance Concert which featured a vast assortment of dances depicting many dance forms and a special treat—a solo by Mrs. Potts.

Baseballers Lose First Four

Prospects still looked dim for the varsity baseball team as April rolled around.

On April 2 Lowell beat Wilson, 11-2, after they had administered a 4-1 shallacking the day before. Thus the Warriors had lost its first four league games—having lost previously to Balboa, 9-5 and 22-11.

However, first year coach Bill Ferree still was hopeful.

“With help from such veterans as Gerald Rankin, Larry Terry, Grant Harper and Ken Mitchell,” he said, “our team has a fine shot at the play-offs. We will need help from such stars as Vic Rodriguez, Gerald Barker and Dennis Pasley.”

Faculty Takes Bowling Title

The faculty bowling team won the championship for the fall semester in the 22-team Faculty Bowling League.

Thus the perpetual league championship trophy came to the hill for the first time and was placed on display in the second floor corridor.

Team members were: Miss Lucy Whitehead, Mr. Tony Fournier, Mr. Emmett Cobb, Mr. Allan Maxwell, and Mr. Adolphus (Doc) Thomas, captain.

Members winning individual honors were: Miss Whitehead, women's high series—552; Mr. Cobb, for converting the "impossible" 7-10 split; and Mr. Thomas, high Men's game—256.

A Successful Principal Works Hard Every Day

A day in the life of a modern high school principal would rival that of any business executive for hard work, glamor and excitement.

A day in the life of Woodrow Wilson's principal, Mr. Saul Madfes, is a case in point.

As the top executive office of the school, Mr. Madfes' duties include a multiplicity of routine and special duties that must be performed successfully to operate a smooth-running educational plant for 1700 students.

PACIFIC TELEPHONE, an Equal Opportunity Employer

Thanks . . .

The fact that you are now reading the 1970 SHIELD is evidence that we owe thanks to a host of people. We now pay our debts, at least in part, by saying thanks to those whose help will ever be remembered.

YEARBOOK HOUSE, our publisher, for accepting our late contract, tolerating some late copy and still providing every needed service—with dispatch, courtesy and quality.

BUD MINKIN, publisher's representative, who was always Johnny-on-the-spot when supplies were needed.

MARY ELLEN SCHULTZ, photographer's representative, for keeping places and events straight and being so pleasant to work with.

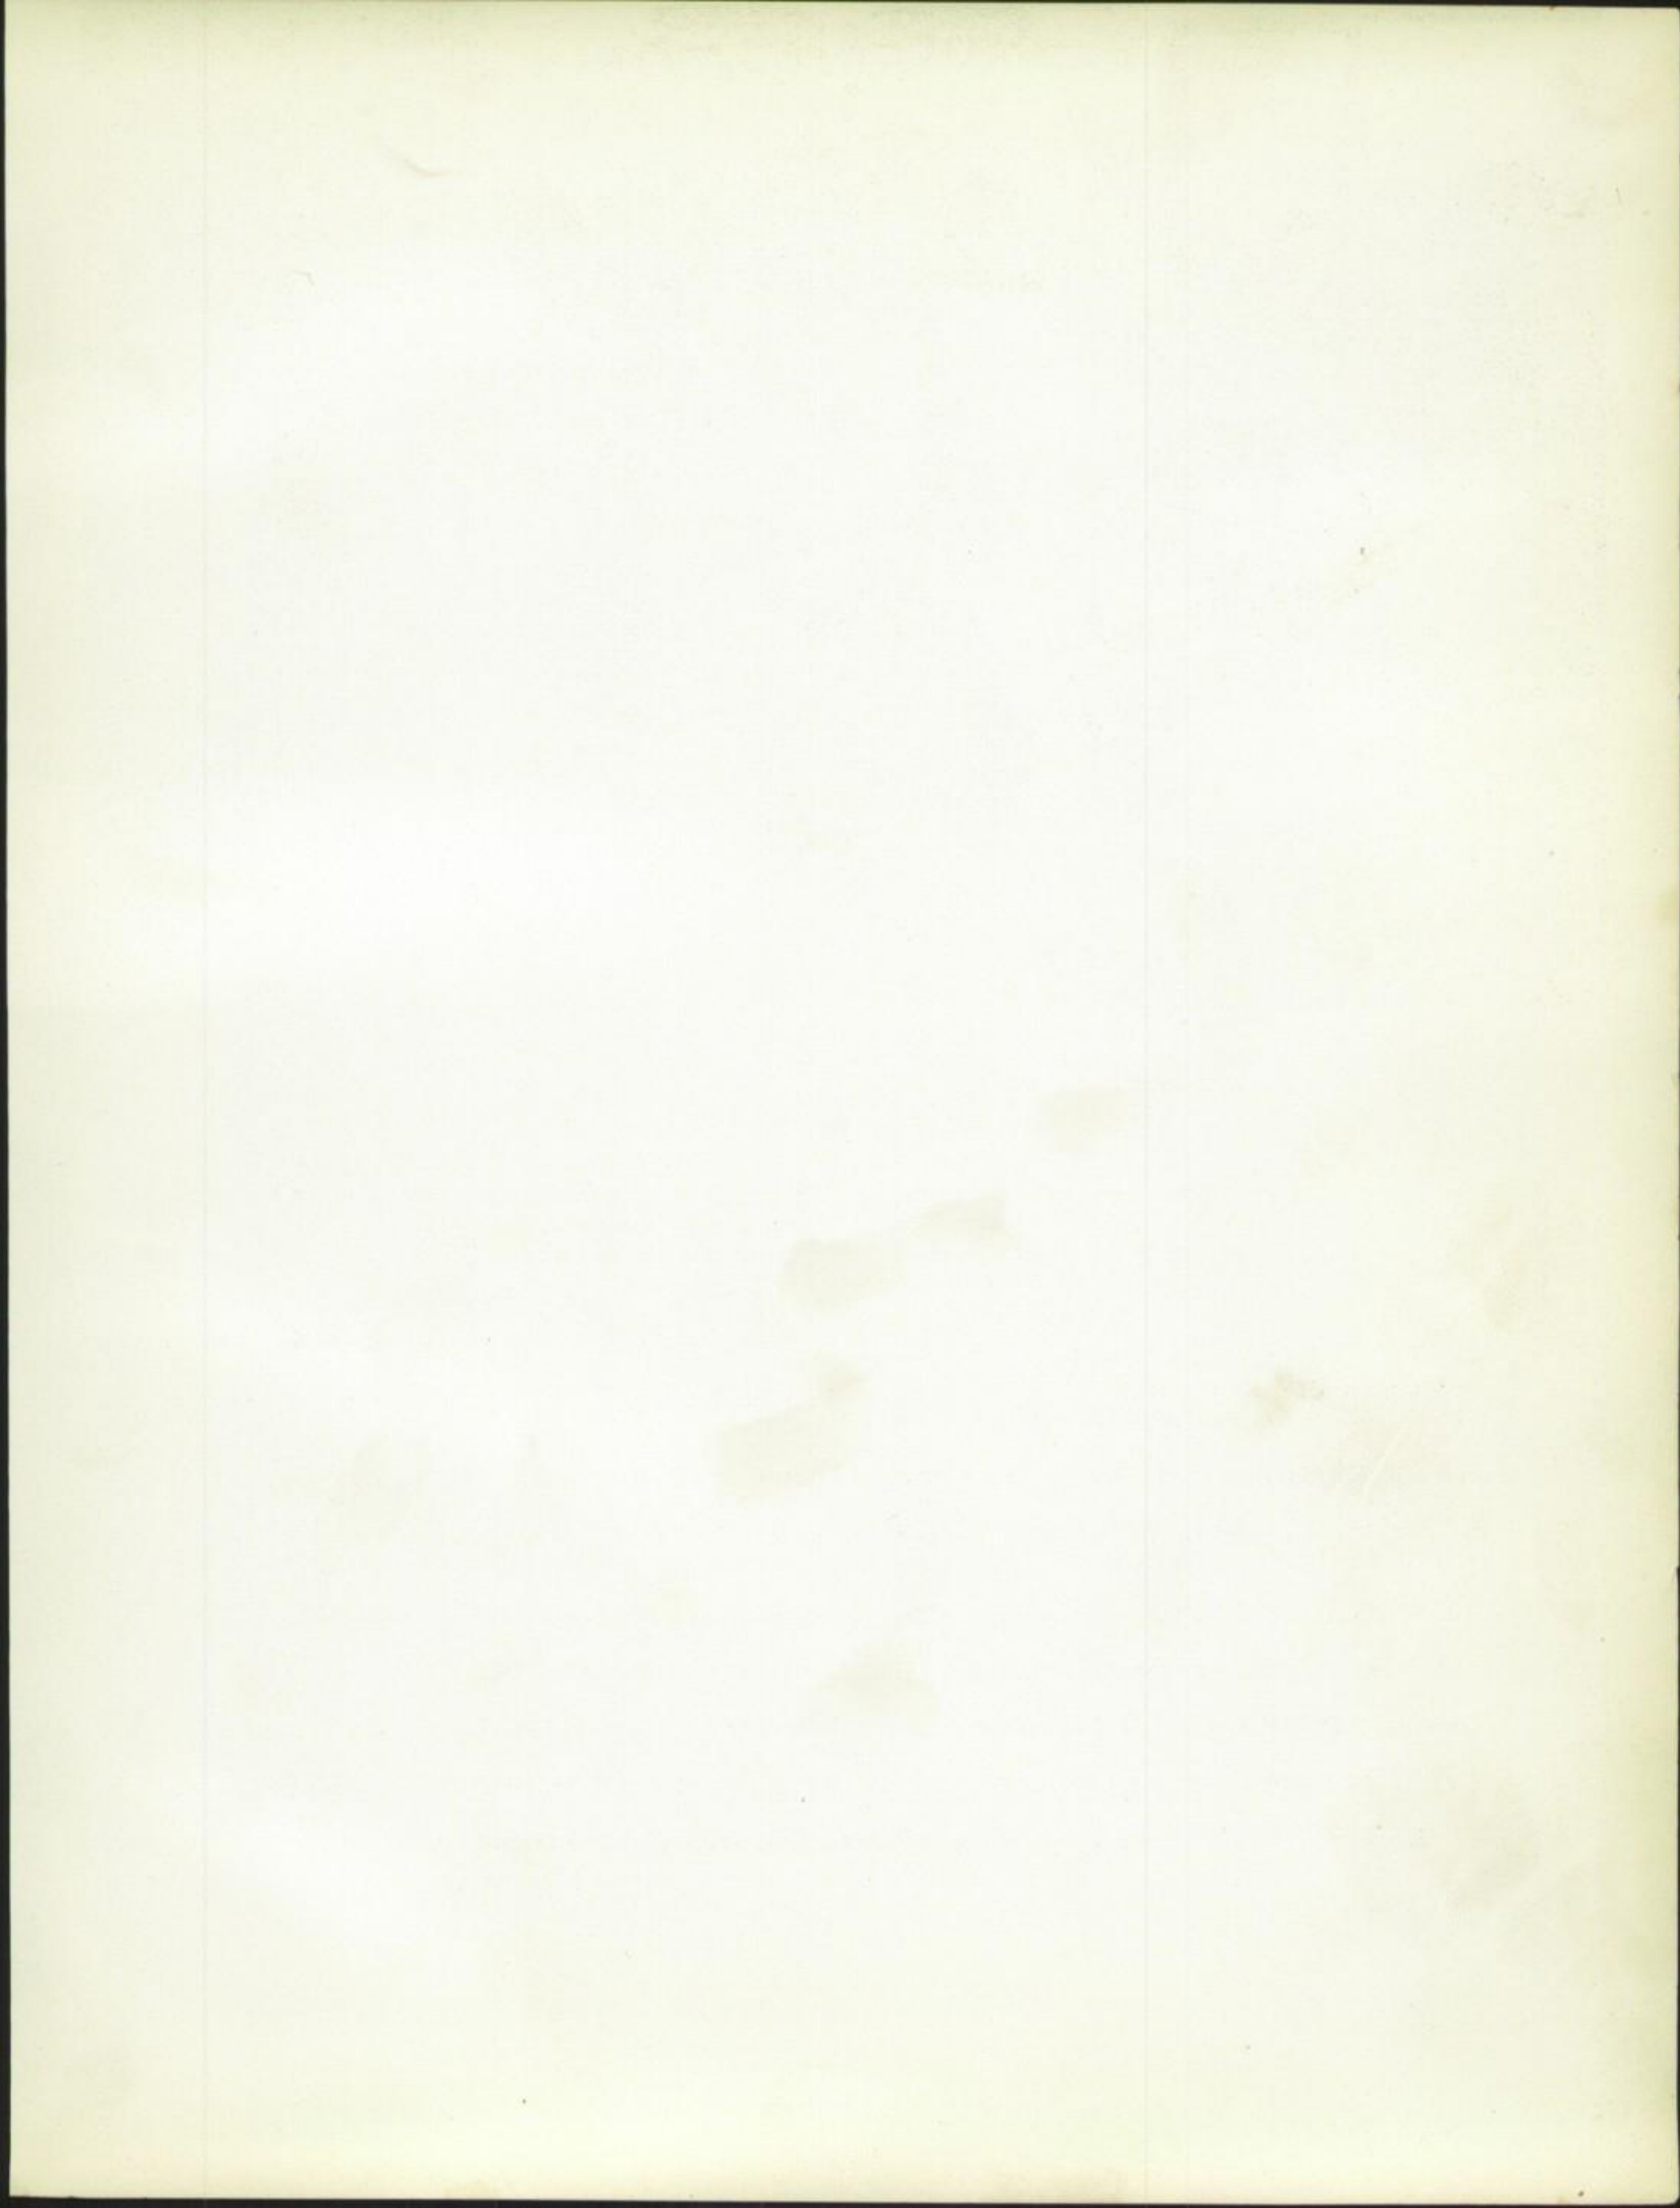

BUD BOSELLI, ace photographer, for some excellent photographs and beautiful layout suggestions.

DAVID YERZY, Senior art student, who designed covers for both the 1969 and 1970 SHIELD.

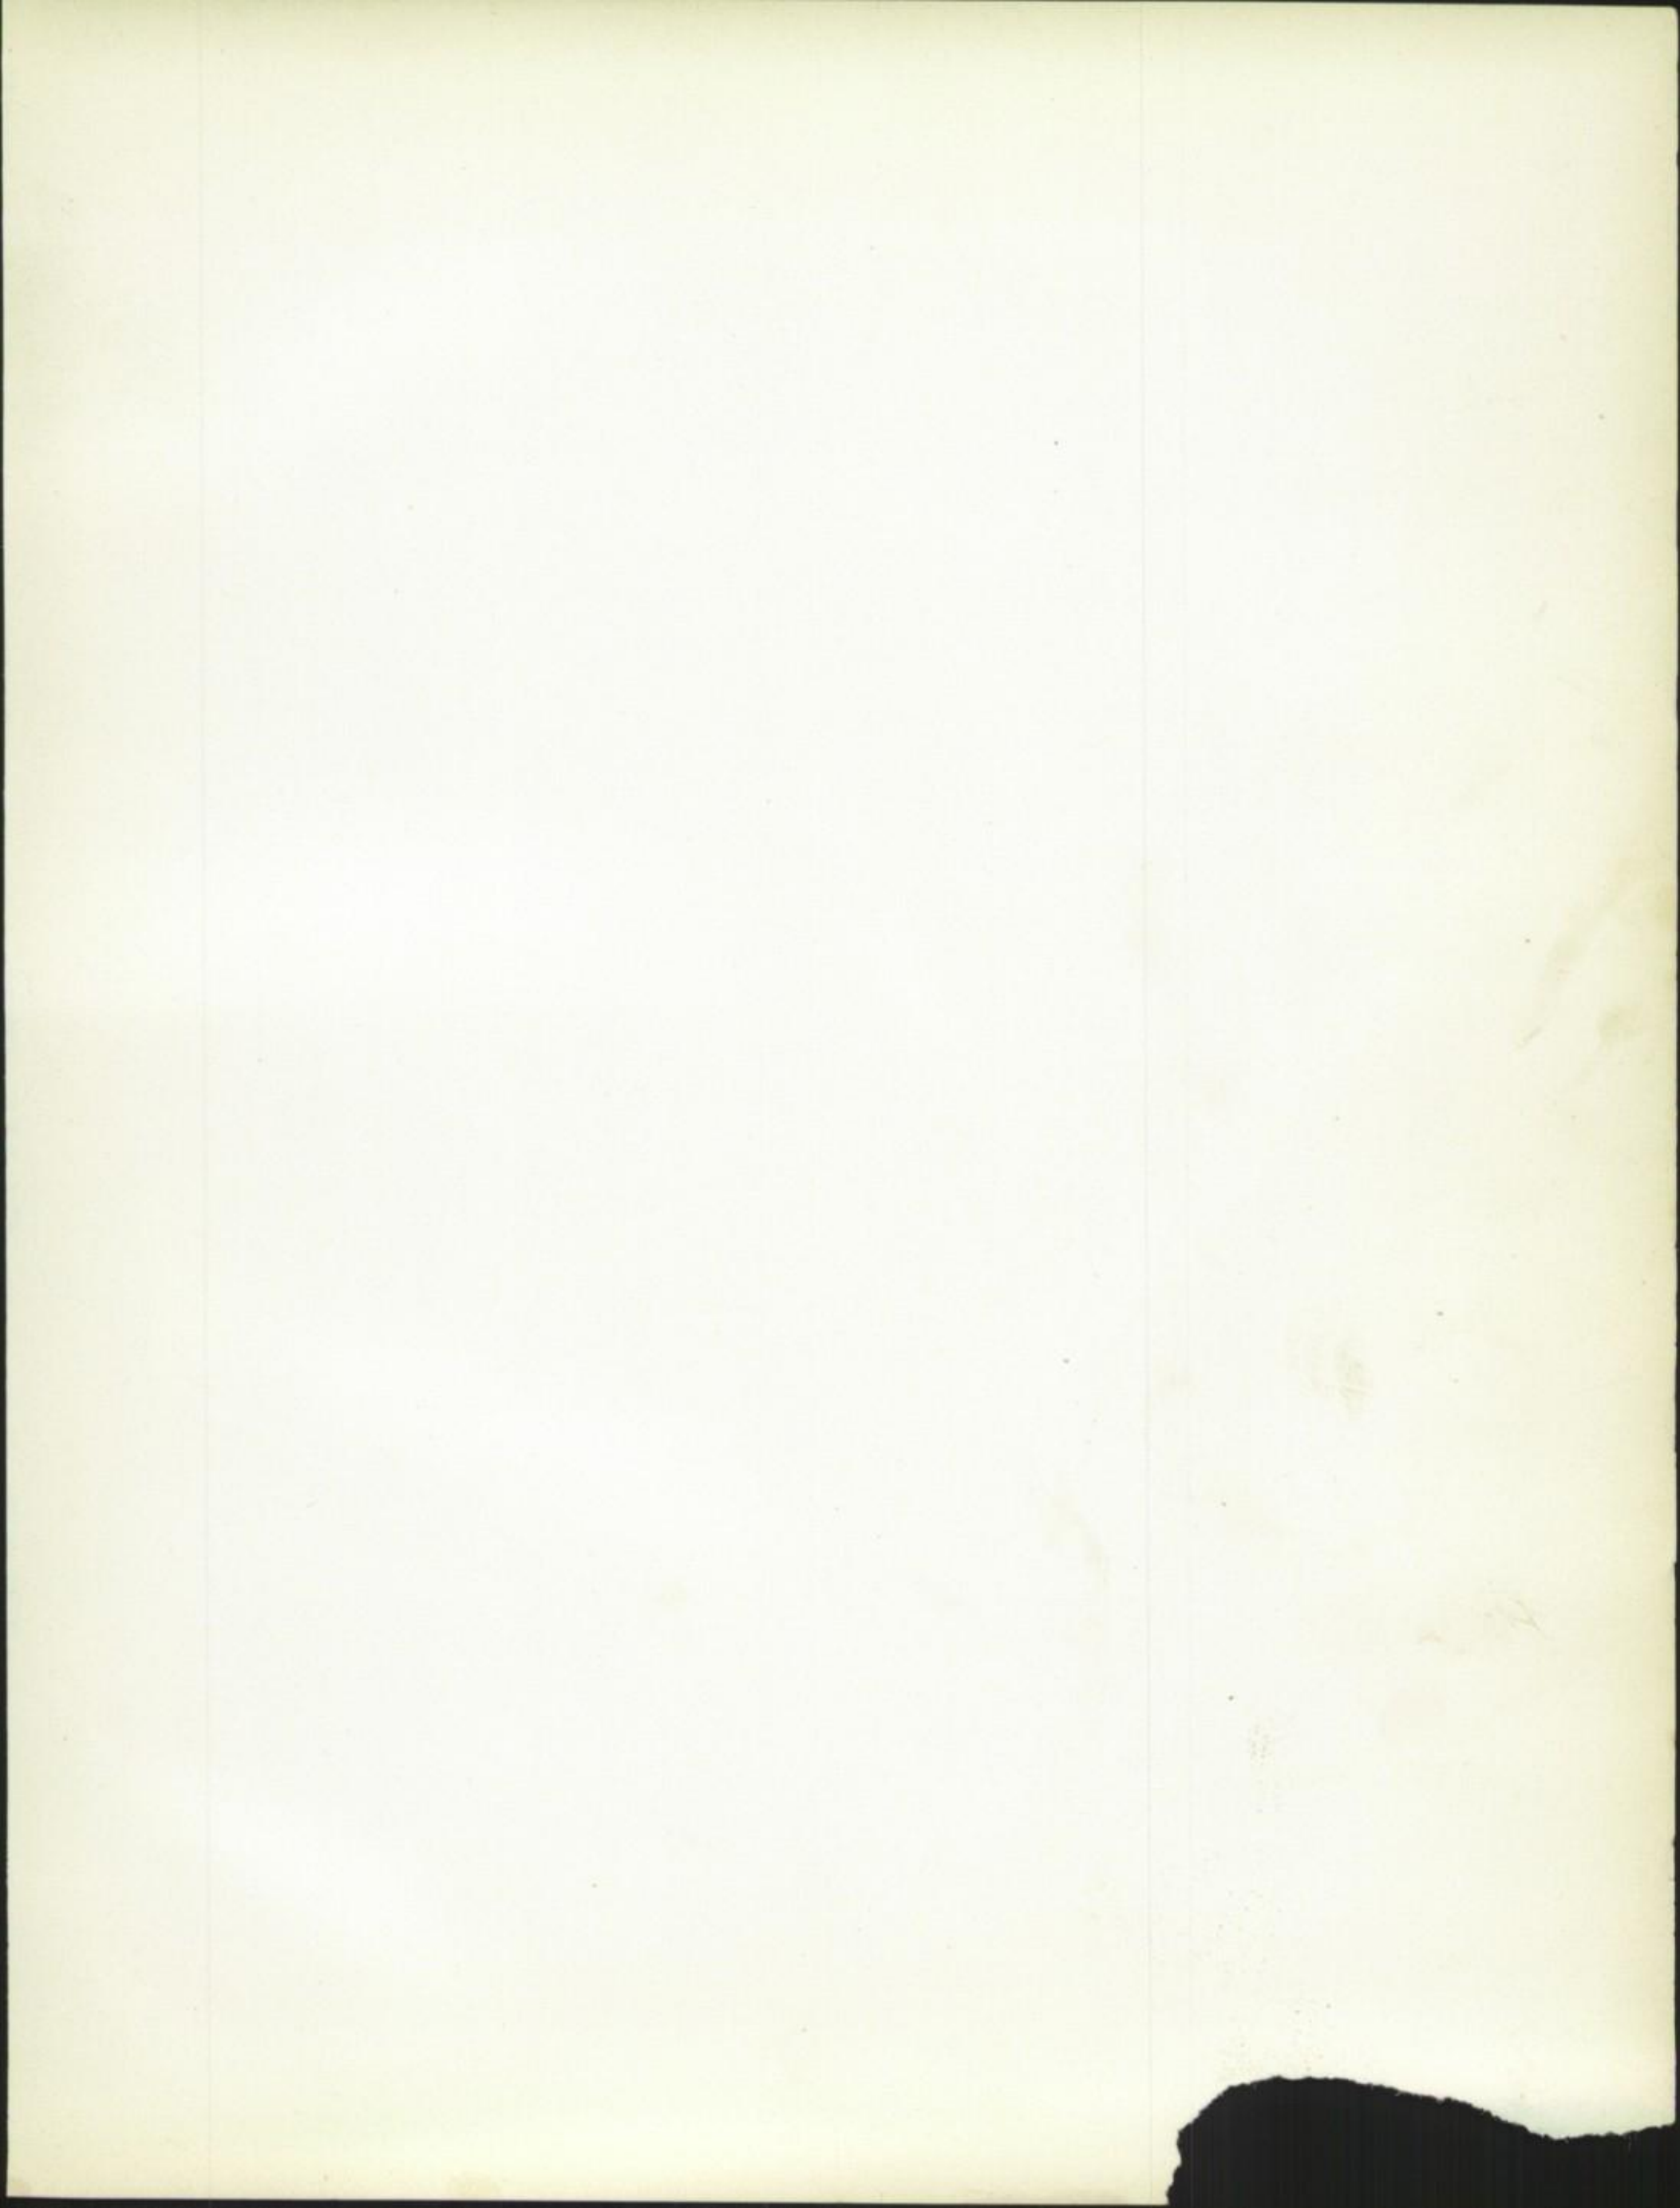

MR. GERALD SIMPFENDERFER and his art students who helped produce posters that boosted yearbook sales.

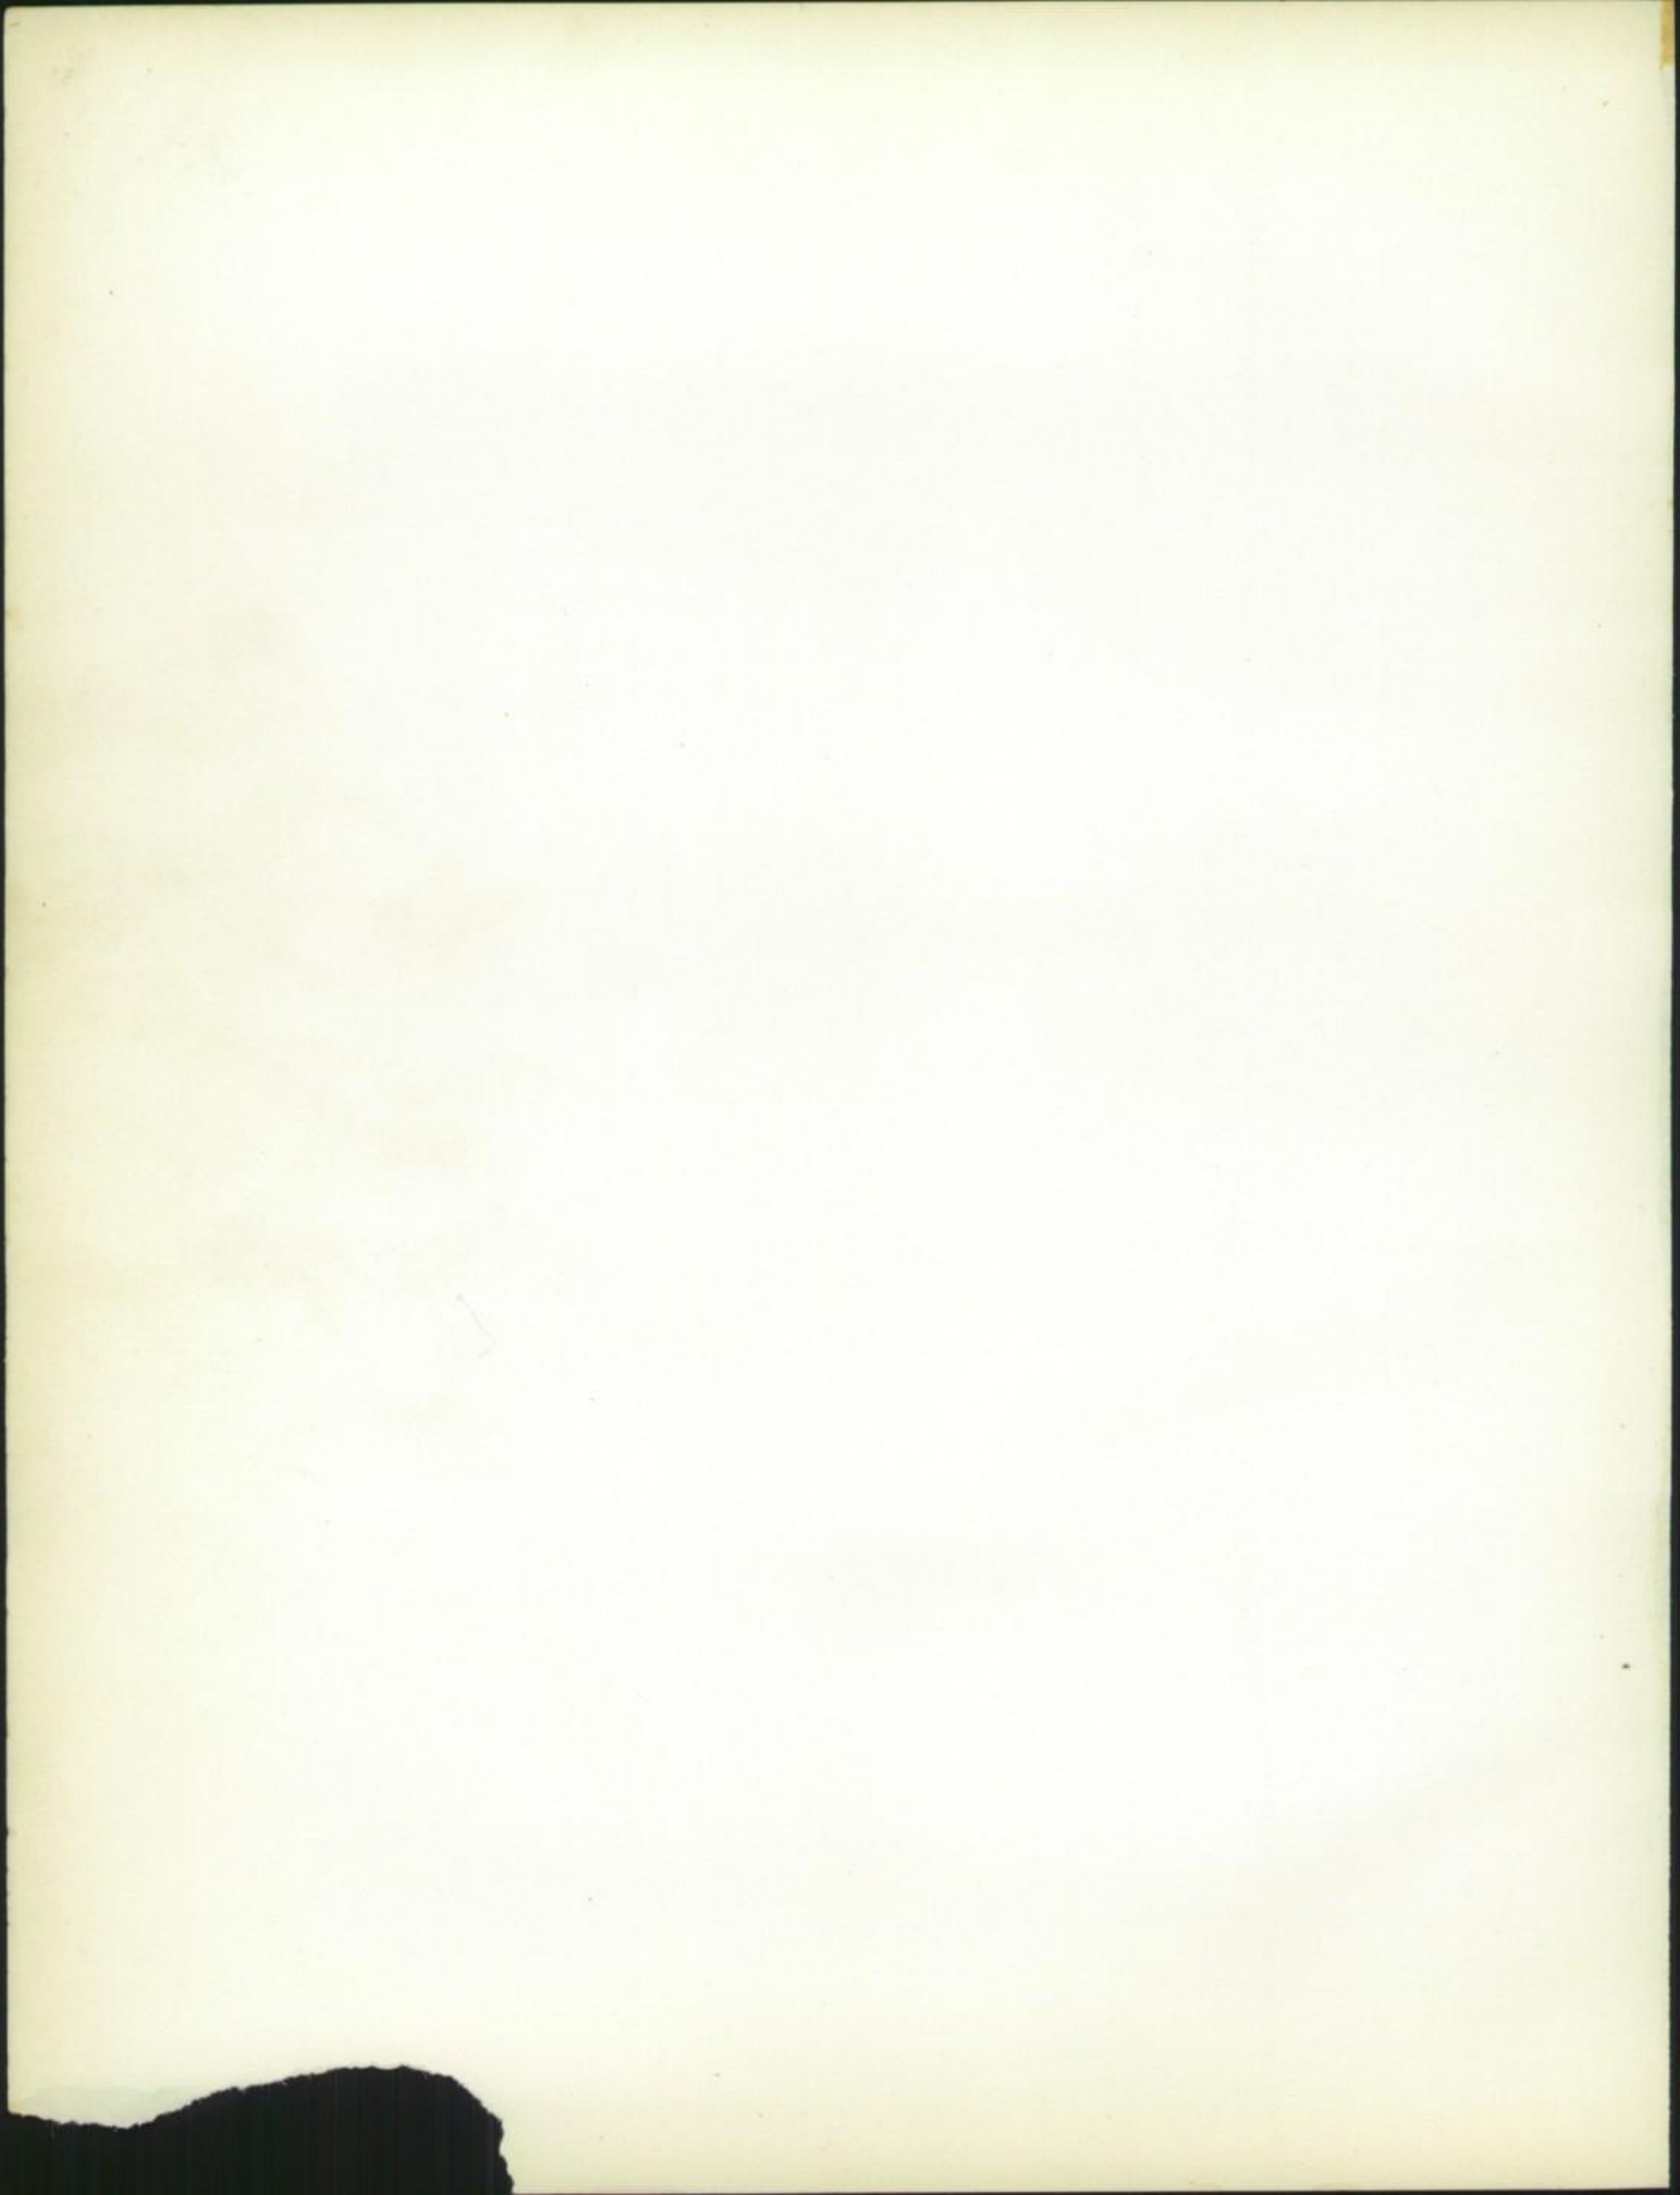

MRS. EURA THOMAS, the "assistant yearbook adviser" whom we kept up late and transformed into a typist.

MR. ADOLPHUS THOMAS, our adviser, who gave lavishly of his time and knowledge and dedication.
